CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR ENGAGEMENT

Nestled within 170 acres of parkland, the stunning Lyrath Estate boasts beautiful exteriors and picturesque surroundings. The enchanting landscape, filled with rustic walkways, lustrous lakes and a majestic waterfall makes for a magical location for your special wedding celebration.

Turn your dream into a reality on your wedding day from the moment you arrive with a red-carpet welcome. The 17th century Manor House is full of charm and has been renewed to its former grandeur to host you and your guests for an arrival reception to remember. The house has been harmoniously joined to the modern hotel, where you will dine in the elegance of our exclusive ballroom. The perfect pairing of old and new.

OUTDOOR CIVIL CEREMONY

If you are planning on a civil ceremony for your wedding day, we offer both indoor and outdoor options.

The first option would be set outside our 17th century Manor House. This idyllic option would be weather dependent with our lawns as your beautiful back drop while you make your way down the old Manor House staircase and out through our magnificent doors.

INDOOR CIVIL CEREMONY

One of our indoor options takes place in our 17th century drawing room, which forms part of the original Lyrath House. This is a stunning venue for the ceremony itself. These historic rooms can cater for up to 100 guests and overlook Lady Charlotte's formal 17th century gardens.

Another indoor location is our McCurdy Suite ballroom, this is a beautiful spot to host your civil ceremony no matter what the Irish weather has planned for your day.

WELCOME RECEPTION

Our Manor House drawing rooms create the perfect setting from which to toast the beginning of an unforgettable wedding. Adjoined to our charming terrace, your guests are welcome to take a seat and soak in the views of the Lady Charlotte Gardens.
